Eli Lilly and Company (NYSE: LLY) announced today that it is extending its offer to purchase all outstanding shares of common stock of McKesson Corporation for $76.00 per share in cash until 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on Friday, September 9, 1994.

The terms of the extended offer are identical to the terms of the original offer announced on July 11, 1994. Therefore, in addition to the $76.00 per share in cash, when the transaction is completed, McKesson Corporation will distribute to its stockholders one share of common stock in a newly formed McKesson corporation for each share in the old McKesson Corporation.

As previously announced, a request for additional information was made by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) pursuant to the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act in connection with Lilly's acquisition of McKesson's PCS Health Systems, Inc., business. The offer is being extended to provide time for Lilly and McKesson to comply with the FTC's request and to permit McKesson to transfer all its non-PCS assets and liabilities to a newly formed corporation and distribute the common stock of the new corporation to McKesson stockholders. For these reasons, it may be necessary to further extend the offer.

As of Tuesday, August 9, 1994 approximately 6,738,800 shares of McKesson common stock had been tendered.
